- (c) require any employee of the Corporation to contribute to the superannuation fund or medical benefits fund and fix the amounts and method of payment of the contributions.

22.—(1) Subject to subsection (4), the Board may, by instrument in writing under the seal of the Corporation, delegate to any committee of the Board or to any employee of the Corporation any of its functions or powers under this Act, so that the delegated functions or powers may be exercised by the delegate in accordance with the terms of the instrument of delegation. Power of Board to delegate

(2) A delegation under this section may be made to the holder of an office under the Corporation specifying the office but without naming the holder, and in that case each successive holder of the office in question and each person who occupies or performs the duties of that office may, without any further authority, exercise the delegated function or power in accordance with the delegation made.

(3) The Board may at any time revoke a delegation made under this section and no delegation made under this section shall prevent the Board from itself exercising the function or power delegated.

(4) The Board shall not delegate—

- (a) its power to delegate; or
- (b) the power to approve the annual budget or any supplementary budget, the annual balance sheet or any statement of account.

PART V
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Funds and resources of the Corporation

23.—(1) The funds and resources of the Corporation shall consist of—

- (a) such sums as may be provided by Parliament for the purposes of the Corporation;
- (b) such sums as the Corporation may, borrow in accordance with this Act;
- (c) any sums or property which may become payable to the Corporation under this Act or any other written law or which may vest in the Corporation in any manner in the performance of its functions.

(2) Where any moneys are paid to the Corporation as part of its funds out of moneys provided for that purpose by Parliament, the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister responsible for finance require the Corporation to pay interest on it to the government; and where the Minister so requires, the Corporation shall pay interest at such times and rates as the Minister, with the concurrence referred to, may determine when such moneys are paid to the Corporation, save that the Minister may, with the said concurrence, waive the payment of interest under this subsection for any period which he thinks fit.

(3) The Government may raise moneys either within or outside Mainland Tanzania, specifically for the purposes of the Corporation; and all moneys so raised shall be charged on and issued out of the Consolidated Fund, and when paid to the Corporation shall form part of its funds.

(4) The Minister shall, with the concurrence of the Minister for finance, determine the manner and time of repayment of any moneys paid to the Corporation under subsection (3), and the times and rate at which interest shall be paid on it, and the Corporation shall make repayment and pay interest in accordance with it.

(5) All sums received from the Corporation under this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Power to raise and
loans

24.—(1) With the prior approval of the Minister for finance, the Board may, obtain loans and other credit facilities from any person for the purposes of the Corporation upon such terms and conditions relating to the repayment of the principal and the payment of interest as, subject to any directions by the minister, it may deem fit.

(2) The Board may, if it is of the opinion that the public interest so requires, and subject to the approval of the Minister, guarantee the repayment of a loan and the payment of interest on a loan made to any person engaged in the construction of houses or renting the buildings owned by the Corporation.

(3) Every loan made by the Corporation under this Act shall bear interest at such rate as the Corporation shall specify and shall be subject to such other terms as may be prescribed or as the Corporation may impose.

(4) In considering the propriety of making a loan or guaranteeing a loan made to any person or body of persons, the Corporation shall have regard to the financial position of the person or body of persons and the sufficiency of the security for the repayment of the loan.

(5) A person giving a loan or other credit facility to the Corporation or, as the case may be, giving a loan to any person the repayment of which is guaranteed by the Corporation shall not be bound to enquire whether the Board has obtained the approval of the Minister for the purposes of that loan or other credit facility or the guarantee.

25.—(1) The Corporation shall establish a Guarantees Reserve Fund into which shall be paid such sums as will maintain the credit balance of the Fund at an account not less than one quarter of the total of the moneys which the Corporation is liable for the time being to be called upon to pay under guarantees given by the Corporation.

Guarantees
Reserve
Fund

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the moneys in the Guarantees Reserve Fund shall be applied solely to meet the obligations incurred by the Corporation under any guarantee.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) shall prevent the Corporation from transferring from the Guarantees Reserve Fund to any other of its funds the sum by which the credit balance of the Fund exceeds the amount of which the Fund is required for the time being to be maintained under subsection (1).

26.—(1) In addition to the Guarantees Reserve Fund, the Corporation shall establish and maintain a General Reserve Fund and shall, subject to any directions given by the Minister under subsection (3), pay into such Fund any net profit earned by the Corporation.

Research
Fund

(2) The General Reserve Fund shall be applied by the Corporation in making good any loss or deficiency which may occur in any of the transactions of the Corporation, other than those for which the Guarantees Reserve Fund is available.

(3) The Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister responsible for finance, give directions to the Corporation as to the balance to be maintained in the General Reserve Fund and, where such directions are given, the Corporation shall not be required to pay any of its net profits into the Fund whereby its balance would exceed the amount directed by the Minister.

Investment 27. The Board may, with the prior approval of the Minister, invest any part of the moneys available in any fund of the Corporation and which is not for the time being required for the purposes of the business of the Corporation as are authorised investments in such investments in relation to investment of funds by a trustee under the Trustees Investments Act.

Cap. 53

Annual and supplementary budget 28.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), "financial year" in this Act means any period not exceeding twelve consecutive months designated by the Board as the accounting period of the Corporation.

(2) The first financial year of the Corporation shall commence on the effective date and may be of a period longer or shorter than twelve months.

(3) Not less than two months before the beginning of every financial year (other than the first financial year) the Board shall, at a meeting, pass a detailed budget (in this Act called the "annual budget") of the amounts respectively—

- (a) expected to be received; and
- (b) expected to be disbursed, by the Corporation during that financial year, and whenever circumstances so require, the Board may pass a supplementary budget in any financial year.

(4) The annual budget and every supplementary budget shall be in such form and include such details as the Minister may approve.

(5) The Minister may, through general or specific instructions given to the Board, direct the Corporation as to the form and details approved by him for the annual or supplementary budget.

(6) Forthwith upon passing any annual or supplementary budget, the Chairman of the Board shall submit directly to the Minister the annual budget or, as the case may be, the supplementary budget, for information and also for the purposes of facilitating the discharge by the Minister of his functions under this Act.

29.—(1) The Board shall cause to be provided and kept proper books of accounts and records with respect to— Accounts and audit

- (a) the receipt and expenditure of moneys and other financial transactions of the Corporation;
- (b) the assets and liabilities of the Corporation, and shall cause to be made out for every financial year a balance sheet showing the details of the income and expenditure of the Corporation and all its assets and liabilities.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited annually by the Tanzania Audit Corporation established by the Tanzania Audit Corporation Act, in accordance with the provisions of law relevant to the audit of accounts of parastatal organisations.

(3) As soon as the accounts of the Corporation have been audited, and in any case not later than six months after the close of the financial year, the Board shall submit to the Minister a copy of the audited statement of accounts together with a copy of the report, if any, on the statement made by the auditors.

30.—(1) The Corporation shall cause to be prepared and submitted to the Minister within six months after the close of the financial year an annual report dealing generally with the activities and operations of the Corporation during that year. The report shall be accompanied by— Annual report

- (a) a copy of the audited accounts of the Corporation, together with the auditors' report, if any, on the accounts;
- (b) a statement of all directions given by the Minister to the Corporation under this Act during that year;
- (c) such other information as the Minister may direct.

(2) The Corporation shall also submit to the Minister such other reports on its financial affairs as the Minister may by writing reasonably request.

(3) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after receiving them, lay before the National Assembly the audited accounts of the Corporation together with the auditors' report, if any, on the accounts and the annual report of the Corporation.

PART VI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Protection of members etc. Cap. 16 C Ap. 76 31. Without prejudice to the provisions of section 284A of the Penal Code or of Public Officers (Recovery of Debts) Act, no act or thing done or omitted to be done by any member or any employee of the Corporation shall, if done or omitted bona fide in the execution or purported execution of his duties as a member of the Board or an employee of the Corporation, subject him to any action, liability or demand of any kind.

WGeneral penalty 32. Any person who commits any offence under this Act or under any subsidiary legislation made under it and in respect of which no specific penalty is provided, shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

Forfeiture 33.—(1) Where any court convicts any person of an offence under this Act, it may, in addition to any penalty, order that any house, building or other interest in respect of which the offence has been committed be forfeited to the Corporation.

(2) Any property forfeited under this section shall be delivered to the Corporation and shall vest in the Corporation free of any mortgage, charge, lien or other encumbrance of any kind.

Where offence committed by body corporate 34. Where any offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate then, as well as the body corporate, any person who, at the time of the commission of the offence, was concerned as a director or officer, with the management of the affairs of the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he had no knowledge, and could not by the exercise of reasonable diligence have had knowledge, of the commission of the offence.

Liability of employer or principal 35. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a person as an agent or employee then, as well as the agent or employee, the principal or employer shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he had no knowledge, and could not by the exercise of reasonable diligence have had knowledge, of the commission of the offence.

Notification of orders and directions 36.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), where any order or direction made or given by the Minister, the Board or the Corporation under this Act is not required to be published in the Gazette, the order or direction shall be brought to the notice of persons affected or likely to be affected by it in any manner determined by the Minister, the Board or the Corporation, as the case may be.

(2) If the order or direction in question is published in the Gazette, all persons shall be deemed to have notice of it.

37. In any proceedings for an offence under this Act the burden to prove that the order, direction or requirement the contravention of which constitutes the offence with which the accused is charged, does not apply to the accused or, in the case of an order, direction or requirement not published in the Gazette, that he had no notice of the contents of the order, direction or, as the case may be, requirement, shall lie on the accused.

proof

38. The or the Board, with the approval of the Minister, may exempt any person or category of persons or any house, building or class of houses, buildings or building schemes from the application of all or any of the provisions of any regulation, order, direction or requirement made, given or issued under this Act in the exercise of their respective powers.

Exemption

39. The Minister may make regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of provisions of this Act, for prescribing terms and conditions of financial assistance, for fees, and for prescribing anything which is to be or may be prescribed.

Regulations

PART VII DISSOLUTION OF REGISTRAR OF BUILDINGS

40.—(1) With effect from the effective date, the Registrar shall be and be deemed to have been dissolved.

Dissolution
and transfer of assets
and liabilities
of

(2) With effect from the effective date, all the assets and liabilities of the Registrar shall, by virtue of this section and without further assurance, be transferred and vest in the Corporation.

(3) Every person who, immediately before the effective date, was managing the affairs and business of the Registrar shall, upon and after the effective date do all things that are necessary or desirable for the effectual vesting in accordance with this Act of the assets and liabilities of the Registrar subsisting immediately before the effective date.

(4) Where before the effective date any person who was responsible for the management of the affairs and business of the Registrar does, or purports to do, any lawful act in relation to the assets and liabilities of the Registrar which if done after the effective date would be necessary or desirable for the more effectual vesting of the assets and liabilities of the Registrar in the Corporation, such lawful act shall be deemed to have been done under this Act, and its performance by that person shall not be called into question in any court by reason only of that act having been done before the effective date.

(5) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, no person shall, after the enactment of this Act but before the effective date, transfer or enter into any transaction which might result in the transfer of any of the assets of the Registrar to any person other than the Corporation.

(6) Any person who fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section commits an offence under this Act.

Provisions regarding Registrar of Buildings employees 41.—(1) Subject to this Act, the Board shall, within not more than three months from the effective date, and with the approval of the Minister, determine which of the employees of the Registrar shall be employed by the Corporation and those whose services shall not be required by the Corporation.

(2) Until the provisions of subsection (1) have been complied with in relation to him, and subject to the other provisions of this Act, each employee of the Registrar shall, after the enactment of this Act, continue in office for the purposes only of facilitating the smooth assumption by the Corporation of the functions of the Registrar.

(3) A person formerly employed by the Registrar, and in respect of whom the Board determines that his services shall not be required by the Corporation, shall have his services terminated from such date as the Board shall determine, his service with the Registrar shall be deemed to have continued up to that date notwithstanding that it is after the effective date, and the Corporation shall pay to such person all payments due to him on account of the termination of his employment.

(4) Where it is decided in respect of a person previously employed by the Registrar that his services shall be required by the Corporation he shall be given the option to decide, within thirty days from the date he is informed of the decision of the Board in relation to him, whether his employment with the Registrar and his employment with the Corporation shall be continuous or his employment with the Registrar should be deemed to have terminated immediately before the effective date and he shall enter employment with the Corporation as a new employee on new terms.

(5) Where a person opts to enter employment with the Corporation as a new employee, his gratuity or other superannuation benefits due to him from his service with the Registrar shall be paid to him in accordance with such procedure as the Minister shall determine and prescribe under section 44, and he shall as from the effective date be deemed to have been employed by the Corporation on such terms and conditions as, subject to law, shall be determined by the Corporation.

(6) For the purposes of deciding whether or not the Corporation requires the services of any person previously employed by the Registrar, the Board shall take into account—

- (a) the organisational set up and the scope for growth of the Corporation;
- (b) the actual and projected requirements of the Corporation for skilled and non-skilled manpower;
- (c) the qualifications, skills and experience of the person in question;
- (d) the suitability for employment in a new organisation, in view of the previous confidential and other reports of that person pertaining to his discipline and zeal at work;
- (e) any other factors which the Minister may direct that they be taken into account in order to secure a just, fair and impartial determination of the employment of the employees of the Registrar.

(7) Where a person chooses, pursuant to subsection (4), to have his employment with the Registrar be continuous with his employment with the Corporation, then the terms and conditions of service applicable to him in his employment with the Corporation shall, except where the Minister directs otherwise, be not less favourable than those which were applicable to him immediately before his transfer to the service of the Corporation and he shall be deemed to have been appointed to the service of the Corporation in such office as the Board shall determine, and for the purpose of determining any right to gratuity or other superannuation benefit, his service with the Corporation shall be regarded as continuous with his service with the Registrar immediately before the effective date.

(8) When a person becomes an employee of the Corporation on the terms set out in subsection (7), his employment immediately before the effective date and his employment by the Corporation shall be deemed to be continuous employment by one employer within the meaning of section 9 of the Severance Allowance Act, and that Act shall apply to the same extent and in the same manner as it applies to the cases set out in subsection (1) of that section.

(9) Every instrument specified in subsection (10) as one to which that subsection applies shall, by virtue of this section continue in full force and effect and the Corporation shall—

- (a) be substituted for the Registrar, as a party to the instrument;
- (b) be entitled to receive, and enforce payment of, any money payable under the instrument;
- (c) be entitled to obtain transfer, conveyance or assignment of, and enforce possession of any property which is to be transferred, conveyed or assigned under the instrument;
- (d) be liable to make payment of any money, payable under the instrument;
- (e) be liable to transfer, convey or assign any property which is to be transferred, conveyed or assigned under the instrument, as the case may be.

(10) This subsection applies to instruments (including contracts, guarantees, agreements, bonds, authorities, mortgages, charges, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bank drafts, bank cheques, letters of credit and securities)—

- (a) to which the Registrar is a party;
- (b) under which any money is or may become payable or any other property is to be, or may become, liable to be transferred, conveyed or assigned, by the Registrar, which are subsisting at the effective date or come into existence after that date.

(11) Every reference in any written law to the Registrar shall be construed as a reference to the Corporation.

Repeal of R.L. Cap. 42. [Repeals the National Housing Act * and the Acquisition of 481 and Buildings Act *.]
Act
No. 13 of 1971

43. Notwithstanding the repeal of the repealed Acts— Savings

- (a) all directions given and all rules made under the repealed Acts in relation to the Registrar or to the Corporation and which are in force on the effective date shall be deemed to be directions given or, as the case may be, rules made under this Act by the relevant authority, and shall remain in force until revoked by directions given or regulations made under this Act;
- (b) any proceedings pending immediately before the effective date to which the Registrar or its representative was a party on account of any matter relating to any of the houses, buildings or other assets or liabilities transferred by this Act to the Corporation shall be continued as if the Corporation were a party to it instead of the Registrar or its representative, as the case may be;
- (c) where anything has been commenced by or under the lawful authority of the Registrar immediately before the effective date and such thing is within the powers of the Corporation or was done in relation to any of the houses, buildings or other assets or liabilities referred to in this Act, such thing may be carried on and completed by the Corporation.

44.—(1) Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Act to the contrary, the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board and upon being satisfied that special circumstances exist which make it just and equitable to do so, permit any person who was employed, permitted, or who was a tenant of the Registrar, to deal in any manner, after the effective date with the house, work or other things involved, upon such conditions as the Minister may prescribe. SCHEDULE

(Section 5(2))

1.—(1) The Board shall consist of—

- (a) a Chairman, who shall be appointed by the President;
- (b) not less than five nor more than seven other members, who shall be appointed by the Minister.

Composition of the Board

(2) In appointing members account shall be taken of a persons' knowledge, experience and outlook in matters relating to the business of housing, building contractors and otherwise.

(3) The Board may appoint any member of the Board or any employee of the Corporation to be the Secretary of the Board.

Vice-Chairman 2. The members shall elect one of their number to be the Vice-Chairman of the Board, and any member elected as Vice-Chairman shall, subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office for a term of one year from the date of his election, and shall be eligible for re-election.

Dis-quali-fica- 3.-(1) No person shall be appointed a member—
(a) if he is of unsound mind; or
(b) if he has been convicted of an offence involving or necessarily implying fraud or dishonesty and has suffered a substantive sentence of imprisonment for it.

(2) A member shall become disqualified to retain and shall, ipso facto cease to hold his office as such member if he shall become subject to any of the disabilities set out in subparagraph (1) or if he is absent from the United Republic for a period exceeding twelve months.

Tenure of office 4.-(1) A member shall, unless his appointment is sooner terminated by the appointing authority, or he ceases in any other way to be a member, hold office for the period specified by the appointing authority in the instrument of his appointment or, if no period is so specified for a period of three years from the date of his appointment, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) Any member may at any time resign his office by giving notice in writing addressed to the appointing authority, and from the date specified in the notice or, if no date is so specified, from the date of the receipt of the notice by the appointing authority, he shall cease to be a member.

Casual vacancies 5. Where any member ceases to be a member before the normal expiration of his term of office, the Minister may appoint another person in his place to hold office until the time when such first-named person's term of office would have expired had he not so ceased to be a member.

Meetings 6.-(1) The Board shall ordinarily meet for the transaction of business at the times and at the places decided upon the Board, but shall meet at least once every three months.

(2) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, may at any time call a special meeting of the Board, and shall call a special meeting upon a written request by a majority of the members in office.

(3) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at every meeting of the Board; and in the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman the members present shall appoint one of their number to preside over the meeting.

Quorum, procedure and decision of the Board 7.-(1) The quorum at any meeting of the Board shall be five.

(2) Questions proposed at a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

(3) Notwithstanding subparagraph (2), a decision may be made by the Board without a meeting by circulation of relevant papers among the members, and the expression of the views of the majority of the members in writing, but any member shall be entitled to require that the decision be deferred and the subject matter be considered at a meeting of the Board.

Board may regulate 8.-(1) The Board shall cause to be recorded and kept minutes of all proceedings of its
